La leyenda del pino Micmac cuenta que tres hermanos guerreros se enfrentaron a grandes peligros para que un mago les concediera sus deseos: el primer hermano era alto y admiraba su altura, el segundo hermano amaba la belleza del bosque y quería quedarse allí para siempre y, el tercer hermano, quería estar siempre saludable. Los tres se convirtieron en árboles de pino y, al hacerlo, se les concedieron sus deseos: el primero se convirtió en el árbol más alto del bosque, el segundo jamás salió de él y, el tercero, siempre tiene las hojas perennes, verdes y exuberantes.

According to a Micmaindian legend, three warrior brothers braved a series of dangers so that a magician would grant them what they wished. The first brother was tall and admired his height, the second loved the beauty of the woods and wanted to stay there forever, and the third wanted to remain healthy. The three became pine trees and, in doing so, their three wishes were granted: the first became the tallest tree in the wood, the second never left it, and the third always had lush green evergreen leaves.
