FADING by KURAMOTO seeks to express the contrast between the certain and the uncertain. The Japanese design studio sought to combine both concepts in order to infuse them with new meaning and new sense of movement. A comprehensive 20x20cm collection with interplay between overlapping patterns and finishes, it tests your interpretative skills. FADING features plain-coloured field tiles in five different colours and décors in the same format.

La colección FADING by JIN KURAMOTO busca expresar el contraste entre las cosas ciertas y las inciertas. La colección diseñada por el estudio japonés busca la combinación entre ambas cuestiones para buscar nuevos movimientos y significados. De esta manera, la colección diseñada por JIN KURAMOTO nos invita a participar en la interpretación de la misma. Jugando con superposiciones gráficas y de acabados se presenta una completa colección en formato 20 x 20 cm que presenta unas bases lisas en 5 tonos diferentes y sus respectivos decorados en el mismo formato.
